

PROGRAMME

THURSDAY 17TH APRIL, 2008

8.30 Registration & Coffee

9.00 Welcome

Joe Kirk, Past President MHEA

Formal Opening of BULK2008

Keith Berryman, Managing Director,
Cross London Rail Links Limited

Construction - A Materials Handling Opportunity?

Chair Dave Mitchell

Head of Engineering, Tarmac Limited

Crossrail - Constructing a World Class Railway & Creating Materials Handling Opportunities

Simon Phillips, Construction Logistics Manager & Gordon Battye, Construction Planning, Cross London Rail Links Ltd

Materials Handling Plant in the ironmaking Process

Jeremy Fletcher, Manager - Plant Engineering
Siemens Vai Ltd

Construction of Plant for Crushing, Feeding & Handling of Wet, Sticky Materials

Paul Dodd, Sales Manager,
Continental Crushing & Conveying

11.00 Coffee & Tea in the Exhibition area

Quarry Management - The Quest for Zero Waste

Chair Trevor Warren

Operations Manager

Lafarge Aggregates Mountsorrel Quarry

Vertical Takeoff - An Opportunity for Quarries

Russ Turner, Technical Manager,
Continental Crushing & Conveying

Quarry Fines Minimisation: Can the Aggregate Industry Eliminate Fine Waste?

Clive Mitchell, Industrial Minerals Specialist
British Geological Survey

"Shaping Up" for Today's Aggregates Demands

Adam Benn, Construction Country Manager
Metso Minerals UK Ltd

Recent Developments in Solutions for Fines Separation and Screening

Brian Mackenzie, Managing Director
Materials Handling Products Ltd

13.15 Lunch

The Drive to Reduce, Re-Use and Recycle

Chair Dr Andrew Goddard

Technical Manager Organics,
Viridor Waste Management Ltd

Recycling and Waste Management - Growth Markets

Paul Sanderson, Editor MRW, EMAP Communications

Reduced Energy Particulate Manufacturing, and its Effect on a Solids Handling Logistics Chain - a Case Study with Kaolin Clay

Prof. Mike Bradley, Tong Deng & Rob Berry, The Wolfson Centre, University of Greenwich and Jacek Kostuch & Alan Coles, Imerys Minerals

Composting Process both Now and in the Future - A Means of Closing the Carbon Cycle Loop

Dr Andrew Goddard, Technical Manager Organics, Viridor Waste Management Ltd

15.40 MHEA Presentation - Mike Redmond,
Hagglunds Drives

15.45 Coffee & Tea in the Exhibition Area

Pollution Prevention & Control

Chair Nigel Staves

Station Manager, Tilbury Power Station,
RWE npower plc

The IPPC Directive and What it Means for Power Station Operation

Tom Massey, Environmental Planning Manager,
Technology Services, RWE npower

Reduction in Landfill Pollution & Economic Recovery of Metals and Energy by the Inovative Use of Injection Technology

Brian Snowdon, Technical Director,
Clyde Materials Handling Ltd

The Environmental Permitting (England & Wales) Regulations 2007

Dr John Henry Looney, Managing Director
Sustainable Direction Ltd

19.30 Pre - Dinner Drinks in the Lounge Bar

20.00 Seminar Dinner

FRIDAY 18TH APRIL, 2008

9.0 Start

Plenary Lecture

Mobilizing Technology to Sustain and Increase Cement Production

Stewart Gater, National Engineering Project Manager
Lafarge Cement

Alternative Fuels

Chair Philip Wallace

Fuel Trading Energy Wholesale, E.ON UK

Waste - A Growing Resource

Richard Woosnam, Business Development Manager -
Overseas & David Porter, Business Development Manager,
Orchid Environmental Ltd

Technical Solutions for Biomass Storage, Handling and Injection

Dr A R Chaudhry, Powder Technologist &
D Cook, Technical Manager, Portasilto Ltd

The Use of Alternative Fuels and their Contribution to a Sustainable Cement Industry

Iain Walpole, Company Environment Manager, Castle
Cement Limited

11.00 Coffee & Tea in the Exhibition area

COAL - A Power in the Future

Chair Nigel Yaxley

Managing Director, Coallmp

(Association of UK Coal Importers)

A New Future for Old King Coal

David Clay, Managing Director, Environmental Services
Group Ltd (ESGL)

True Price & Performance of Coal - The Burning Issue is the Effect of Handleability

Dr Harold Wright, Director, Dr H Wright & Associates, David Esslemont, Technical Risk Engineer, Shaun Stanfield, Materials Handling Manager & Stuart Walker, Combustion Process Manager, Longannet Power Station, ScottishPower Generation UK

The Ffos-y-fran Land Reclamation Scheme

James T. Poyner, Director, Miller Argent (South Wales) Ltd

Coal from the World Market

Nigel Yaxley, Managing Director, Coallmp (Association of UK Coal Importers)

13.20 Summary - Brian Mackenzie, Vice President MHEA
Chairman BULK 2008

Close of Seminar - Joe Kirk, Past President MHEA

13.30 Lunch