

CALL FOR PAPERS FOR BULK2014

Bring your company to the attention of the Bulk Industry with this opportunity to present papers at the Bulk Handling Conference 2014. Whether you're showcasing your company's latest innovation or discussing improvements in the industry, this is your chance to meet and network with colleagues across the bulk sector.

VENUE The conference will be held at the highly attractive Forest Pines Resort which provides excellent facilities for business, conference and leisure. Programming will allow time to travel on the Wednesday morning with the conference running over Wednesday afternoon and Thursday, plus the option of a sports event/leisure break on the Friday.

ITINERARY The event will encompass keynote and plenary presentations, a gala dinner and after dinner speaker entertainment. Accompanying the conference will be a related exhibition. Opportunities are available for event and item sponsorship ensuring outstanding opportunities for corporate entertainment and networking. Timetabled slots in the programme are also available for commercial presentations.

SUBMISSIONS Submissions relating to technical innovation or process improvements will be given preference, particularly those relating to heavy industries such as minerals processing and cement, metal manufacture, power, port operations, mining, waste processing and recycling.

TOPICS Conference papers will finally be determined by the contributions received but are likely to include:

- Biomass handling/storage
- Developments in materials handling
- Drives and transmissions
- Loading, unloading, storage and reclaim
- Crushing, screening and washing
- Control of impact, abrasion and erosion
- Spillage and dust control
- Storage and reclaim
- Waste and recycling
- Control, metering and management systems
